

Who's doing what?

Riverton Leisureplex City of Canning

Provide and maintain a state of the arts facility.

Recruit and employ qualified swimming coaches and teachers.

Develop swimming skills, self confidence of each swimmer through the squad program.

Assess, inform and promote swimmers from one squad level to the next.

Provide some training equipment: pull buoy, kick boards and fins...

Decide squad fees structure and collect squad training fees accordingly.

Riverton Aquanauts resident Swim Club

Register swimmers to compete in Swimming WA sanctioned events.

Provide assistance in regard to competition participation.

Foster team spirit.

Develop relations between swimmers outside training times.

Recognise and promote swimmer's progression and performances along his/her career with many rewards and prizes.

Collect annual membership fee and nomination fees.

Riverton Leisureplex and Riverton Aquanauts are working together to:

Promote swimming and increase the participation within the sport.

Foster an environment where all competitive and recreational swimmers are enjoying their time in and around the pool.

Set the conditions where champions could grow and everyone can leave up to his/her dreams.

Organise and run smoothly Club Nights and local swimming carnivals.